Dear Friends,

Happy anniversary to Pride of Dakota!

The North Dakota Department of Agriculture is proud of Pride of Dakota and the businesses we have been supporting for the past 30 years, but this anniversary is not about us. It's about the 500-plus Pride of Dakota member companies and it's about you, the people who buy and use Pride of Dakota products and services. You have made and continue to make Pride of Dakota a resounding success.

This 30th anniversary Pride of Dakota Membership Directory is your consumers' guide to a wonderful variety of products and services produced here in North Dakota. It is a platform for Pride of Dakota member companies to introduce themselves; to let you know who they are, where they are, and what products and services they have for you.

The North Dakota Department of Agriculture works to develop, improve and expand market opportunities, domestic and foreign, for North Dakota products. The department's marketing and information staff works hard to develop and implement projects that increase market exposure for member companies.

Any company, large or small, that produces, processes or manufactures a finished product in North Dakota can belong to Pride of Dakota. For more information, please contact:

I hope that you and all shoppers will look for the colorful Pride of Dakota logo. When you buy Pride of Dakota products and services, you not only guarantee your own satisfaction; you also help member companies – your neighbors and friends – as we build a stronger and better North Dakota together.

On behalf of more than 500 food companies, manufacturers, publishers, service providers, artisans and associates who are members of Pride of Dakota, thank you for 30 wonderful years. We hope you enjoy this directory and refer to it often, as we set our sights on the next 30 years.

Sincerely,

Doug Goehring
Agriculture Commissioner
